For more than thirty years, Councilwoman Jamelle McKenzie has served her community through her successful nonprofit and for-profit organizations and ministries. Her passion for service and community led her into her calling of public service as Ward One City Councilmember representing the City of College Park, Georgia.

In addition to her role as Councilmember, Jamelle is the founder of the IGNITE College Park Resource Center. Ignite serves as a referral agency that assists individuals in need of critical resources within the community. As the co-founder of Birth Right by Legacy, an entrepreneurial-themed program for African American Teens, Jamelle assists in transforming the lives of young people via mentoring and support.

Her accolades include her being wife to Geoffrey and mom to Reginald. Jamelle devotes her time to Atlanta Kiwanis International, South Metro Democratic Women's Council, The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Georgia Democrats, and the International Conference of Police Chaplains. Most recently, Councilmember McKenzie was selected as one of 15 national leaders to serve on Chick-fila's Impact Accelerator Cohort and inducted into the Georgia WIN List WLA Leadership Academy for Women.
